Both Chris Brown, Esq. and Richard Miller III, Esq. are representing Defendant in Broome Family Court: Plaintiff vs. Rees action filed by Plaintiff is active requesting an Order of Protection for Plaintiffs.

All appearances so far in Broome Family Court have been virtual via Teams. The trial in-person will be held on April 17th 2024 at 1.15PM, passed the deadline for Affidavit of Service for documents to be served on Defendant and filed with the Court. Defendant did not attend the last scheduled virtual appearance via Teams in February 2024 and may not attend the in-person trial in April 2024 either.

Defendant asked the Broome Family Court for a Confidential Order protecting his new address outside of New York since he sold his house 680 NY-220 Town of Smithville, NY 13801 in December 2023, so ordered by Honorable Judge Young with Plaintiff ordered not to locate Defendant's address, Exhibit 1. Plaintiff is appealing. In the meantime, Plaintiff is abiding by the Court Order, however, Defendant still needs to be served with Federal Court Documents and why Plaintiff is requesting permission to serve Defendant via alternative methods: his attorney's, mail, and email. Rio Props., Inc. v. Rio Int'l Interlink, 284 F.3d 1007, 1017 (9th Cir. 2002).
